

Kent Parish Church - Photographic Collection 5-6-2013

The Ian Green Kent Parish Church Photographic Collection is contained in Albums on the Library Room shelves against the external wall.

County	Parishes	Title	Country	Date Range	Topic	Box Id	Pub year
Kent
	Ash, Nr Wrotham
		Ash, near Wrotham. Many a roof survives from this period. This is a good example of a very usual Kentish type, with horizontal tie beams which carry vertical members to support the ridge of the roof.	England		Kent Wrotham Ash Church Photo	KPC0068.	1982
	Ashford
		Ashford, A fine rebuild of an earlier fabric and a good example of a cruciform building with a central tower.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0053.	1982
	Barfreston
		Barfreston. One of the finest village churches of the period, and one of the best known. St Nicholas.	England		Kent Barfreston Church Photo	KPC0012.	1982
		Barfreston. The beautifully carved mid 12th century south door.	England		Kent Barfreston Church Photo	KPC0018.	1982
		Barfreston. The lovely interior. Note the blind arches and the early rose window.	England		Kent Barfreston Church Photo	KPC0021.	1982
	Brook
		Brook. A small two-cell building with a typical squat, heavy west tower. (St Mary)	England		Kent Brook Church Photo	KPC0013	1982
	Burham
		Burham. A Gothic Revival building, in the centre of the new village, a mileaway from the old church and village.	England		Kent Burham Church Photo	KPC0094.	1982
	Canterbury

The Ian Green Kent Parish Church Photographic Collection is contained in Albums on the Library Room shelves against the external wall.

County	Parishes	Title	Country	Date Range	Topic	Box Id	Pub year
Kent
	Canterbury
		Canterbury. St.Martin. A much rebuilt early Saxon structure containing much Roman material. Saxon work in Chancel.	England		Kent Canterbury Church Photo	KPC0003.	1982
	Charing
		Charing. A queen post roof, a rebuild of an earlier roof destroyed by fire in the 16th century.	England		Kent Charing Church Photo	KPC0069.	1982
		Charing. A typical four-centre arch under a horizontal canopy with carved spandrels.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0062.	1982
	Charlton by Dover
		Charlton by Dover. A 19th century Gothic Revival structure.	England		Kent Charlton Dover Church Photo	KPC0090.	1982
		Charlton by Dover. The east end with the grandiose eastern high altar.	England		Kent Charlton Dover Church Photo	KPC0093.	1982
	Chartham
		Chartham. The special form of window tracery known as Kentish tracery, is shown here.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0046.	1982
	Cliffe
		St. Margaret's At Cliffe, The fine single-point arch of the north door.	England		Kent Cliffe Church Photo	KPC0017.	1982
		St. Margaret's at Cliffe. The characteristic outward splay of the arcades is clearly shown.	England		Kent Cliffe Church Photo	KPC0023.	1982
		St. Margret's at Cliffe. A fine 12th century parish church.	England		Kent Cliffe Church Photo	KPC0011.	1982
	Coldred
		Coldred. A basically original small pre-Conquest church.	England		Kent Coldred Church Photo	KPC0005.	1982
	Cranbook

The Ian Green Kent Parish Church Photographic Collection is contained in Albums on the Library Room shelves against the external wall.

County	Parishes	Title	Country	Date Range	Topic	Box Id	Pub year
Kent
	Cranbrook
		Cranbrook. Perhaps the most noteworthy of Kent's buildings of the period. A wool church built of the local honey coloured sandstone.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0055.	1982
		Cranbrook. The many large windows produce marvellous interior views, such as this.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0064.	1982
		Cranbrook. The sandstone tower is now showing deterioration caused by the weather.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0059.	1982
	Deal
		Deal, St, George. An excellent example of an 18th century municipal church.	England		Kent Deal Church Photo	KPC0081.	1982
	Deal
		Deal. St, George. With raised pulpit (unfortunately recently lowered), galleries, and gallery seats for the mayor and corporation.	England		Kent Deal Church Photo	KPC0084.	1982
	Dover
		Dover. St. Mary in Castro. Though much rebuilt, it remains one of the finest 10th century Saxon churches in the country. (Nearby the Roman Lighthouse)	England		Kent Dover Church Photo	KPC0004.	1982
		Dover. St. Mary in Castro. The blocked south door, showing long-and-short work and re-used Roman material.	England		Kent Dover Church Photo	KPC0009.	1982
		Dover. St. Mary the Virgin. The bottom two stages of the tower are of about 1100 AD, the top three are some half a century later.	England		Kent Dover Church Photo	KPC0015.	1982
	Eastchurch
		Eastchurch. A noteworthy building, erected in a single style, Perpendicular Gothic, and remarkably little altered.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0052.	1982

The Ian Green Kent Parish Church Photographic Collection is contained in Albums on the Library Room shelves against the external wall.

County	Parishes	Title	Country	Date Range	Topic	Box Id	Pub year
Kent
	Eastry
		Eastry, Note the effect of the light from the clerestory windows, illuminating the whole building.	England		Kent Eastry Church Photo	KPC0036.	1982
		Eastry. An early 13th century rebuild of a Saxon and Norman structure, with an early nave clerestory.	England		Kent Eastry Church Photo	KPC0025.	1982
	Egerton
		Egerton, Fine west windows and west doors were an important feature of the time.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0063.	1982
		Egerton. Porches developed elegance at this time.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0061.	1982
	Elham
		Elham. This century is notable for the wonderful care devoted to lovely old mediaeval churches such as this.	England		Kent ElhamChurch Photo	KPC0095.	1982
	Gillingham
		Gillingham. Wigmore, St. Matthew. One of the best of the modern churches of the Rochester Diocese. Simple lines, lightness, and the central altar, are most effective.	England		Kent Gillingham Church Photo	KPC0100.	1982
	Gravesend
		Gravesend. Here the church has become the preaching house, with visual concentration, not upon the altar, but on the pulpit.	England		Kent Gravesend Church Photo	KPC0085	1982
		Gravesend. The successor to several earlier churches, either destroyed or superceded.	England		Kent Gravesend Church Photo	KPC0082.	1982
	Groombridge

The Ian Green Kent Parish Church Photographic Collection is contained in Albums on the Library Room shelves against the external wall.

County	Parishes	Title	Country	Date Range	Topic	Box Id	Pub year
Kent
	Groombridge
		Groombridge. A simple uni-cell building of the first half of the 17th century,	England		Kent Groombridge Church Photo	KPC0074.	1982
		Groombridge. The good 17th century porch, with the single-point arch and keystone of the period.	England		Kent Groombridge Church Photo	KPC0075.	1982
	Guston
		Groombridge. The simple interior, with some 17th century.	England		Kent Groombridge Church Photo	KPC0077.	1982
		Guston. A characteristic Kentish arrangement of three small windows in the east wall of the chancel.	England		Kent Guston Church Photo	KPC0019.	1982
	Hastingleigh
		Hastingleigh, A typical small Early English chancel. Note the characteristic top hoods of the windows in the south –wall.	England		Kent Hastingleigh Church Photo	KPC0033.	1982
	Hawkhurst Moor
		Hawkhurst Moor. Windows reverted to simple styles after the exuberance of the Decorated Gothic and the emphasis was on simple vertical lines.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0066.	1982
	Hedcorn
		Headcorn. One of the finest timber roofs in a county which always possessed abundant supplies of excellent timber.	England		Kent Hedcorn Church Photo	KPC0070.	1982
	Hever
		Hever. The tall slim spire.	England		Kent Hever Church Photo	KPC0029.	1982
	Hinxhill

The Ian Green Kent Parish Church Photographic Collection is contained in Albums on the Library Room shelves against the external wall.

County	Parishes	Title	Country	Date Range	Topic	Box Id	Pub year
Kent
	Hinxhill
		Hinxhill. A typical spire on the west tower. (The 13th century was the period when tall spires were popular)	England		Kent Hinxhill Church Photo	KPC0028.	1982
	Hoo St Werburg
		Hoo St Werburg. A flattened roof of this type was possible once sheet lead was freely available as a roof covering.	England		Kent Hoo St Werburg Church Photo	KPC0071.	1982
	Horton Kirby
		Horton Kirby. An elegant, slender, and lofty interior characteristic of the finest Early English work.	England		Kent Horton Kirby Church Photo	KPC0034.	1982
	Hythe
		Hythe. The fine chancel. Note the high two-point lancet windows and slender buttresses.	England		Kent Hythe Church Photo	KPC0026.	1982
	Ivychurch
		Ivychorch. Basically of the Decorated, but completed in the later Perpendicular Period. A fabric of much character and appeal.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0040.	1982
	Kilndown
		Kilndown. An unusual building erected under the patronage of a wealthy local family.	England		Kent Kilndown Church Photo	KPC0088.	1982
		Kilndown. The interior with a fine screen and roof.	England		Kent Kilndown Church Photo	KPC0091	1982
	Litle Chart
		Little Chart. A post Second World War building to replace a good mediaeval church destroyed by enemy aerial action.	England		Kent Ashford Little Chart Church Photo	KPC0098.	1982

The Ian Green Kent Parish Church Photographic Collection is contained in Albums on the Library Room shelves against the external wall.

County	Parishes	Title	Country	Date Range	Topic	Box Id	Pub year
Kent
	Little Chart
		Little Chart. The use of curves and proportions reminding one of the early 13th century. A good atmosphere has been obtained.	England		Kent Ashford Little Chart Church Photo	KPC0099.	1982
	Lydd
		Lydd. The Saxon chapel at the west end of the north aisle.	England		Kent Lydd Church Photo	KPC0010.	1982
	Lyminge
		Lyminge. The Saxon walls of the present chancel.	England		Kent Lyminge Church Photo	KPC0006.	1982
		Paddlesworth (Lyminge). An early Norman single-point arch with typical, individually carved pillars and capitals.	England		Kent Lyminge Church Photo	KPC0016.	1982
	Lympne
		Lympne. The present tower and much of the east end of the fabric is of early 12th century origin. (Good view over Romney Marsh)	England		Kent Lympne Church Photo	KPC0014.	1982
	Maidstone
		Introductory slide. Maidstone (All Saints) The mediaeval group consisting of Archbishop's palace, the Parish church, and the ruins of the old monastic institution.	England		Kent Maidstone Church Photo	KPC0001.	1982
		Maidstone. The beautiful late mediaeval building beside the River Medway.	England		Kent Maidstone Church Photo	KPC0054.	1982
	Mereworth
		Mereworth. Strong emphasis upon the Classical style.	England		Kent Mereworth Church Photo	KPC0086.	1982
		Mereworth. The only example of this type of building in Kent.	England		Kent Mereworth Church Photo	KPC0083.	1982
	Milton Regis

The Ian Green Kent Parish Church Photographic Collection is contained in Albums on the Library Room shelves against the external wall.

County	Parishes	Title	Country	Date Range	Topic	Box Id	Pub year
Kent
	Milton Regis
		Milton Regis. A distinctive early rebuilding of a 12th century fabric, parts of which originate even earlier.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0039.	1982
		Milton Regis. The west doorway with a typical middle period Decorated window over it.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0044.	1982
	Milton Regis
		Milton Regis. Interiors, then much painted and decorated, became works of art.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0049.	1982
	Minister
		Minster in Sheppey. The west tower, like several others in the county, was not completed.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0060.	1982
	Nettlestead
		Nettlestead. A more developed variation of the Perpendicular style of window, with small ogee arches at the top.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0067.	1982
	Newchurch
		Newchurch. A fine building, little changed in all its basic essentials from when it was erected.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0038.	1982
		Newchurch. In this period the porch, at first open as shown here, became fairly general.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0045.	1982
		Newchurch. Typical of the sense of space and proportion of the period.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0051.	1982
	Newendon
		Newendon. A good simple Decorated Gothic doorway, with a two centre arch, but it is wider and lower in proportions when compared with the Early English type.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0043.	1982
	Otham

The Ian Green Kent Parish Church Photographic Collection is contained in Albums on the Library Room shelves against the external wall.

County	Parishes	Title	Country	Date Range	Topic	Box Id	Pub year
Kent
	Otham
		Otham. Note the ogee curves in the tops of the niches over the doorway.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0048.	1982
	Paddock Wood
		Paddock Wood. A solid uncompromising brick structure built in the mid 19th century.	England		Kent Paddock Wood Church Photo	KPC0096.	1982
		Paddock Wood. The simple, uncluttered interior.	England		Kent Paddock Wood Church Photo	KPC0097.	1982
	Petham
		Petham. A medium size building of the period.	England		Kent Petham Church Photo	KPC0024.	1982
	Plaxtol
		Plaxtol, built during the Protectorate.	England		Kent Plaxtol Church Photo	KPC0073.	1982
	Plaxtol²
		Plaxtol. The fine hammer beam roof, rare, if not indeed unique, in the county.	England		Kent Plaxtol Church Photo	KPC0079.	1982
	Preston
		Preston (near Wingham). The lowered Early English west tower is now probably only about two thirds of its original height.	England		Kent Preston Church Photo	KPC0027.	1982
	Preston, Nr Wingham
		Preston. (near Wingham). The tall, elegant Early English chancel, with a later north chapel.	England		Kent Preston Wingham Church Photo	KPC0032.	1982
	Ramsgate
		Ramsgate. St. George. The elaborately finished interior of this municipal church.	England		Kent Ramsgate Church Photo	KPC0092.	1982
		Ramsgate. St. George. The lofty tower surmounted by an open lantern.	England		Kent Ramsgate Church Photo	KPC0089.	1982
	Reading Street

The Ian Green Kent Parish Church Photographic Collection is contained in Albums on the Library Room shelves against the external wall.

County	Parishes	Title	Country	Date Range	Topic	Box Id	Pub year
Kent
	Reading Street
		Reading Street. A simple unicell building erected on the turnpike road, the population having moved down the hill from the ancient, but inaccessible, village of Ebony.	England		Kent Reading Street Church Photo	KPC0087.	1982
	Reculver
		Reculver. The foundations of an early Saxon church within the ruins of the mediaeval building.	England		Kent Reculver Church Photo	KPC0002.	1982
	Rolvenden
		Rolvenden. The fine Decorated Gothic west tower.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0041.	1982
	Ryarsh
		Ryarsh. A typical example of a small parish church of the period.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0042.	1982
	Sevenoaks
		Sevenoaks. A typical west tower of the period.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0058.	1982
		Sevenoaks. Another lovely interior. The roof is modern, a copy of one destroyed, by fire early in the century.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0065.	1982
	Sheppy
		Minster in Sheppey. A crude single-point arch, high up in the nave wall.	England		Kent Sheppy Church Photo	KPC0008.	1982
	Smallhythe
		Smallhythe. A simple brick built, unicell church, built as a chapel of ease, near the end of the period.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0056.	1982
	Snave
		Snave. A small Romney Marsh church.	England		Kent Snave Church Photo	KPC0037.	1982

The Ian Green Kent Parish Church Photographic Collection is contained in Albums on the Library Room shelves against the external wall.

County	Parishes	Title	Country	Date Range	Topic	Box Id	Pub year
Kent
	St Nicholas at Wade
		St. Nicholas at Wade. A pitched arch, one of two Saxon types.	England		Kent St Nicholas at Wade Church Photo	KPC0007.	1982
	Staple
		Staple. The simplest form of an Early English two-centre lancet arch or window.	England		Kent Staple Church Photo	KPC0031.	1982
	Stone, Dartford
		Stone, near Dartford. The magnificent Decorated Gothic interior, one of the finest in the county.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0050.	1982
	Tenerden
		Tenterden. The finest of Kent's many Perpendicular Gothic west towers.	England		Kent Church Photo	KPC0057.	1982
	Tenterden
		Tenterden. The fine panelled and painted ceiling of the nave.	England		Kent Tenterden Church Photo	KPC0072.	1982
	Thanet
		Minster in Thanet, The beautifully stone groined chancel. One of the finest in the county.	England		Kent Thanet Church Photo	KPC0035.	1982
		Minster in Thanet, The fine nave with its north and south arcades. The west end is of Saxon origin.	England		Kent Thanet Church Photo	KPC0022.	1982
	Tonge
		Tonge. The single-point arches, capitals and circular and square pillars of the north arcade. (St Giles.) Wall Painting of St Christopher	England		Kent Tonge Church Photo	KPC0020.	1982
	Tunbridge Wells

The Ian Green Kent Parish Church Photographic Collection is contained in Albums on the Library Room shelves against the external wall.

County	Parishes	Title	Country	Date Range	Topic	Box Id	Pub year
Kent
	Tunbridge Wells
		Tunbridge Wells, King Charles the Martyr. A noteworthy interior, much of which was constructed by the personal craftsmen of important architects.	England		Kent Tunbridge Wells Church Photo	KPC0078.	1982
		Tunbridge Wells, King Charles the Martyr. Originally built as a chapel of ease for the use of the royal court which moved out here from London in the summertime, in the second half of the 17th century.	England		Kent Tunbridge Wells Church Photo	KPC0076.	1982
		Tunbridge Wells. The Plaster ceiling.	England		Kent Tunbridge Wells Church Photo	KPC0080.	1982
	Wingham
		Wingham. More Kentish tracery.	England		Kent Wingham Church Photo	KPC0047.	1982
	Wrotham
		Wrotham. An ambulatory passage cut through the tower.	England		Kent Wrotham Church Photo	KPC0030.	1982